Revel Supermarine SEAFIRE Mk 1 B

!Image of Supermarine SEAFIRE Mk 1 B

Supplied Equipment

- Kills
  - Gun
  - Underwater Vision System
- Armament
  - Anti-aircraft weapons
  - Anti-submarine weapons
- Aviation
  - Aircraft identification
- Operations
  - Navigation
- Crew
  - Officer personnel

Notable Features

- Aviation
  - Long-range flights
  - High-speed navigation
- Armament
  - Full range of weapons
  - Effective anti-air and anti-submarine capabilities

Operators

- United States
  - United States Navy
- United Kingdom
  - Royal Navy

Specifications

- Crew
  - 4
- Weight
  - 10,000 kg (22,046 lb)
- Dimensions
  - Length: 18 m (59 ft)
  - Width: 4.5 m (15 ft)
- Power
  - Two 20-cylinder radial engines
- Performance
  - Maximum speed: 400 km/h (250 mph)
  - Range: 1,500 km (932 miles)

Manufacturer

- Revel AG
  - Switzerland

Notes

- Aviation
  - Advanced aviation technology
- Armament
  - High-performance weapons
- Crew
  - Experienced officers

Additional Information

- Variants
  - SEAFIRE Mk 1 B
  - SEAFIRE Mk 2
- Operators
  - Multiple nations
  - Adapted for various roles

Production

- Year
  - 1940
- Units Produced
  - Over 1,000

Recognition

- Markings
  - British roundels
  - Identification numbers
- Special Features
  - Camouflage paint
  - Night vision equipment

Summary

The Supermarine SEAFIRE Mk 1 B was a successful aircraft used by the United States and United Kingdom during World War II. Its advanced aviation technology and high-performance weapons made it a formidable aircraft. The SEAFIRE Mk 1 B was produced in large numbers and was adapted for various roles, making it a versatile asset in the war effort.
Seafire MK.IIC der No. 885 Squadron
Royal Navy auf dem Flugzeugträger
HMS „Formidable“ Juli 1943
Seafire Mk. Ib geflogen von
Lt. Cdr. Duncan Hamilton
in Port Reitz, Kenia